VINNIE BELL

1932 - 2019

*Dear beloved Family, Friends and Fans
of Vincent Edward Gambella, aka, Vinnie Bell,*

The Vincent Gambella Family had planned to have a memorial service for Vinnie, husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather and multi-talented musician on October 3, 2020, the anniversary of his passing.

However, due to the current pandemic and recent news of its resurgence, we have put a tribute to him on his official website, along with a video celebrating his life. This website memorial includes a guestbook for you to sign. We hope that all that wish to will share their remembrances of this wonderful man.

The site contains much of Vinnie's music and highlights from his career for you to explore and enjoy. It seemed fitting that this tribute be added to it.

We hope you will visit vinniebell.com as a place for all who loved him to share thoughts and memories, since these are very dear to us and part of the legacy of Vinnie Bell.

With great love for you all,

The Gambella Family:
